Know It

1. Read Hebrews 2:11–13. How does Jesus relate to those He saves?

3. Read Romans 8:1–4. What does this passage mean for those who are in Christ?

Think It

1. Why is it important that Jesus not only forgives us, but also brings us into God's family?
2. Thinking about Hebrews 4:15, how does Jesus being tempted "in every way" yet without sin help us trust Him more deeply?
3. Deep down, do you tend to see God as disappointed in you or pleased to bring you close? Why?

Change It

1. Is there an area of shame, insecurity, or fear where you need to believe that you truly belong in God's family?
2. What is one area where you need to stop trying to "earn" God's approval and instead rest in Christ's finished work?
3. How can you intentionally reflect Jesus, the Brother who stays, with someone who is struggling right now?
